In case of change in timelines the Clearing Corporation shall inform Participants by issuing circular.

2. Funds Settlement for Subscription:

Receipt and transfer of funds for subscription of mutual fund units will be done in accordance with the settlement schedule.

Participants shall ensure monies of clients for mutual fund transactions on MFSS through any mode like NEFT, RTGS, UPI etc is transferred directly to the bank account of NCL only. In respect of the mandates being used of mutual fund transactions on MFSS following process shall be applicable as clarified by SEBI vide its circular reference number SEBI/HO/IMD/IMD-I DOF5/P/CIR/2022/29 dated March 15, 2022:

2.1. Existing Mandates:

To continue using existing mandates registered in name of Participants before April 1, 2022, NCL shall engage with the payment aggregators including banks of the Participants. Participants shall inform NCL the details of payment aggregator with whom the mandates have been registered as per circular reference number NSE/NMF/51656 dated March 17, 2022

NCL shall facilitate settlement of existing mandates subject to payment aggregator meeting the requirement/guidelines specified by NCL and relevant authority from time to time. List of such eligible payment aggregators shall be informed to the Participants from time to time. List of payment aggregators is provided in Part D.

Participants shall provide clear identification of only mutual fund mandates to their payment aggregator along with the designated Clearing Corporation to which monies collected from clients account shall be credited. Payment aggregators shall transfer the funds in respect of only mutual fund transaction on MFSS to the approved account of NCL only.

Participants shall amend its existing agreements with payment aggregator to ensure that the monies collected in respect of mutual fund transactions on MFSS from the bank account of the clients are only credited to the approved account of NCL but not to the bank account of the Participant.

Participants shall accordingly inform the clients regarding the change of beneficiary for existing mandates.

2.2. New Mandates:

On or after April 01, 2022, new mandates shall be accepted only in favour of NCL and those mandates shall exclusively be for mutual fund transactions on MFSS and not for any other purpose.

List of eligible payment aggregators for new mandates shall be informed by Clearing Corporation from time to time. List of payment aggregators is provided in Part D.

NCL shall accept funds only from the client bank accounts registered with NSE. Participants shall accordingly ensure valid bank accounts of their client are registered with NSE. In respect of funds received by NCL through payment aggregator, the details like member code, UCC, bank account etc shall be provided by payment aggregator to NCL. Accordingly, Participants shall ensure the required details are updated with their payment aggregators. In case funds received by NCL are from account not registered with NSE or details not received from payment aggregators or falls short of the order value the same shall be refunded to client account by T+3 day T being date of credit to NCL account. Participants are required to ensure that correct bank account and IFSC are maintained to ensure timely settlement of refunds. NSE Clearing Limited shall in no event be liable for any delay in refunds on account of incorrect bank account / IFSC.

All requests for subscription will be settled on individual basis and only to the extent of the funds received from the registered accounts of clients with NSE. Clearing corporation shall settle funds received from clients towards subscription in the account in the specified bank account of AMC.

Clear funds should be available by cut off time by 01:00 p.m. (for HLIQD) and by 02:30 p.m. (for Normal, SIP and NFO orders) in the designated NCL account for processing the order on T day. For the funds received through payment aggregators, transactions shall be processed subject to funds and its related details made available prior to cut off.

In case of rejection order by RTA, respective AMC/RTA shall arrange to provide refund along with details of transactions rejected by them with reason for rejection latest by the end of T + 2 day (where T is day of reporting the transaction to RTA or date of applicable NAV whichever is later). In the event of failure to credit the refund amount to the client's bank account by clearing corporation for whatever reasons, clearing corporation shall refund the amount back to the respective AMC.

For NFO fund settlement shall be executed on date of order. In case of rejection, RTAs/AMCs shall arrange to credit the refund for such rejected transactions in the designated bank account of clearing corporation within T + 5 day (where T is the date of closure of NFO). In respect of partial allotment the refund shall be given within "T+5" business days after close of NFO.

3. Units Settlement for Subscription

For demat transactions the units shall be credited to the investors' demat account by clearing corporation as per the settlement schedule and based on the allotment information provided by the RTA and the depository pay-in files. For non-demat the units shall be credited and debited directly to folio account by RTA.

Participant shall ensure valid demat account is registered with NSE. NCL shall credit the units to the demat account which is received in the order placed on NSE.

If credit to the beneficiary accounts of the client is unsuccessful which could be on account of incorrect/inactive account or any other reason, the units shall be transferred to AMC Account. On receipt of refund from AMC, NCL shall refund the amount to the clients source account.

For NFO the unit settlement shall be done directly by the RTA to the clients of Participant.

In respect of non-demat transactions units shall be settled directly by the RTA to the clients of Participant in their respective folios.

3.1. Subscription unit shortage

If units are not provided or partial quantity is received from AMC, the available units shall be allocated to the subscription orders. The shortages shall be shifted to next immediate settlement type and settlement number till S+5. However, such shifted orders shall be settled in next settlement cycle in a second preference i.e. priority shall be given to orders received for the present settlement type and settlement number and then to shortages of previous settlement in ascending order of the trade date i.e. oldest date orders will be given priority after the present settlement orders. A report shall be sent to participants, for information of shortage.

The RTA is required to provide the remaining quantity for unallocated orders in AMC Account for settlement in next immediate settlement type and settlement number till S+5. In case, the shifted orders remain un-allocated in S+5 settlement cycle, the same shall be treated as closed i.e. no further attempt shall be made to get the units from AMC/ RTA for allocation. AMC/ RTA is expected to settle the units for such orders directly to investor.
